Looking for EASY and PRACTICAL behavior management strategies?

Learn how to use more than ten (10) patterns of communication that really work!

These skills preserve the most powerful leverage point of educators: relationships. Learn why non-verbal strategies are even more effective than verbal management. Educators love ENVoY because the strategies create an atmosphere where less time is spent on management and more time is spent learning. Students respond to ENVoY because they are supported through more self-direction and responsibility. Our most challenging students are happier because they are removed from learning less often.

“The ENVoY skills were relevant, practical and can be used with any curriculum. Since taking ENVoY, our time on task has been on a steady increase!”

- Amy, Minneapolis, MN

“ENVoY has completely changed the way I interact with my students and manage my classroom in such a positive way. It allows me to save my energy and focus on maintaining relationships with my students and my teaching.”

- Alicia, Coon Rapids, MN

“ENVoY creates a safe environment through understanding the individual and allowing for reduction in inflammation of trauma.”

- Luke, Blaine, MN
